

EXPERIENCE

DANIEL A. GOLDSTEIN, M.D.

CONSULTANT- MEDICAL, INDUSTRIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL TOXICOLOGY

With training in general medicine, pediatrics, and reproductive toxicology, and with 35 years of experience in private practice and industry, Dr. Goldstein has acquired clinical, consulting, and forensic experience across a wide range of materials, exposure conditions, consulting circumstances and legal frameworks.

Materials

- Alcohol and drugs of abuse
- Pharmaceuticals / Vaccines
- Medical devices and implants (silicone)
- Carcinogens
- Reproductive toxicants and teratogens
- Metals
- Solvents and adhesives
- Mineral fibers (natural and manmade)
- Respiratory irritants (RADS), industrial asthma
- Skin sensitizers and irritants / industrial dermatitis
- Radioactive materials (medical, civilian, military)
- Pesticides (insecticide, fungicide, rodenticide, etc.) and disinfectants
- Surfactants /Household and Industrial cleaning products
- Toxic gasses (carbon monoxide, arsine, phosphine, phosgene, etc.)
- Food additives and pesticide residues
- Novel / Genetically modified / Gene Edited foods

Exposure Conditions

- Self-administered (use, abuse, suicidal intent)
- Industrial / Workplace (drug/chemical manufacture, petroleum, construction, general manufacture.
- Home (carbon monoxide, hydrocarbon, radon, etc., household chemicals)
- Pregnancy / Reproductive toxicology
- General Environmental (waste disposal sites, superfund, smelting/foundry, etc.

Consulting Circumstances

- Industrial exposures / Manufacturing safety
- OSHA compliance (for toxics), Biomonitoring program design and optimization.
- Worker and General Public concerns / crisis intervention communications
- Sick building syndrome
- Environmental exposures / Public health
- GMO and Pesticide regulation, residues and safety.
- Pharmaceutical / Device manufacture, adverse effects.

Legal/Forensic

- Admitted as expert in Local, State, and Federal courts in both criminal and civil matters.
 - Provided testimony in courts at all levels and in more than 200 depositions ranging from individual cases intoxication to mass toxic tort litigation.
 - Experience in criminal, civil, railroad, maritime, worker's compensation (including federal), social security disability law.
-